

Peterborough F.C. Scholarship Award

Peterborough F.C. was originally founded in the late 1960s by a small group of soccer enthusiasts as Reg Connelly Oldtimers. Over the years, the elite oldtimers competitive soccer club has travelled across North America, playing in Mexico, the US, and Ontario. Presently, the club concentrates its play in the Durham region, sponsoring up to three teams in different age divisions in a competitive league on Sundays.

The scholarships were created to honour our teammates who were outstanding players with our club. Will Andreoli and Rick McKinlay played with Peterborough F.C. for many years and were outstanding ambassadors and builders of the sport of soccer and the Club in Peterborough. Unfortunately, both passed away while still active players.
